INFORMATION FOR POTENTIAL CONTRIBUTORS

- Submissions must be received by Monday September 18 to be considered for inclusion in the exhibition The Invisible Reading Room at Firstdraft Gallery, Sydney in October 2006.
- Publications will be selected on the basis of the following selection criteria: If the title submitted is in fact an artists' publication; the quality of the works relative to other submissions; the focus on young and emerging artists; whether the work is self-published or otherwise; and whether the work fits within a contemporary visual arts dialogue.
- In most cases we are unable to consider exhibition catalogues, books of illustrated poetry, literary magazines, posters, or works of fiction.
- Publications included in the project are not for sale, and The Invisible Inc. cannot act as an agent for sale of publications – prices and contact details will be included in the catalogue, and will assist visitors should they wish to contact or obtain copies of any publications.
- Publications accepted for inclusion in the archive will remain the property of The Invisible Inc. and will be retained for future exhibitions of the project. Should The Invisible Inc. cease to exist, the archive will be donated to a similar organisation.
- The Invisible Reading Room will have AV facilities including one computer, one CD player and 1 television with DVD and video player. Sound and video publications are particularly encouraged to apply.
